Dear Friend,

Since the Sea Cliff Village Museum's establishment in 1979, generous Sea Cliff residents and friends of the museum have donated thousands of items to the Sea Cliff Village Museum - all valuable objects, textiles, photographs, and papers to help us document and exhibit Sea Cliff's history. The museum's mission is to "raise community awareness by preserving and showcasing artifacts, documents, photographs, and costumes relating to the unique historical background of the village," and the preservation and exhibition of these donations is crucial to that mission. The Friends of the Sea Cliff Village Museum is dedicated to supporting the Museum through volunteerism, fundraising, outreach, and advocacy.

Please consider joining the Friends of the Sea Cliff Village Museum to help preserve Sea Cliff's history. Your gift will help pay for the archival materials we use when documents, photographs, textiles, and other objects are donated from current and former residents of our village as well as special events and programs.
